

viking M mobile hoist

Key features / spec

204kg (32st) swl

Weighs only 30kg (4.7st)

Compatible with the aurum bariatric bed and riser recliner

Lightweight design for easier patient transfers

Can be used to transfer patients directly from the floor

Wireless handset included as standard

The viking M has been developed to provide mobile lifting assistance for patients.

Able to lift patients in a variety of care situations, the viking M is made of aluminium to ensure transfers are as easy to manoeuvre as possible.

The viking M mobile hoist provides a generous lifting height, allowing plenty of space for the patient.

The viking can also be equipped with a Liko quick-release hook system to quickly and easily change the sling bar or install a scale.

Product code
BMVM